

2019 ELDER NOMINATION GUIDELINES

Who can nominate?

Communing members of IPC in good standing, who have reviewed the Biblical requirements for the office of Elder (1 Timothy 3:8-13, Acts 6:2-7), may nominate men for the office of Elder.

Who can be nominated?

To be eligible for nomination to the office of Elder, an individual must be an active male member in good standing at IPC and have fully completed IPC's Prerequisite Officer Training Course or previously served as an Elder at IPC.

How many men may I nominate?

Members may nominate as many qualified men as they wish but may only submit one nomination for a particular nominee.

How many nominations are required for someone to be considered?

Each man must receive at least 5 nominations from 5 different members of IPC to be considered by the Session.

The following Elders are scheduled to roll off the Session in August 2019. If willing, each must be re-nominated and re-elected in order to serve another term as Elder.
